The winner will be the one who receives the most votes at each. She will be crowned with due ceremony by Joe Fazio, president of the student body of Torrance high school. The money will go toward the Y-Teen Centennial fund. To date $193.89 has been turned in for the Torrance Y-teens fund. Marlene Svenson, Inter-Club Council president is chairman of the dance while Arlene Lesar, Inter-Club Council member, is in charge of special arrangements. This will be a couples dance. Tickets are being sold by Torrance Y-teens only.

Free Movies Set At Parks

All boys and girls are invited to attend the free movies to be shown by the Torrance Recreation Department Saturday, April 23. The selected picture is a real action movie that children of all ages will enjoy. The following playgrounds will show the movies: McMaster Park at 10 a.m.; El Retiro Park at 1 p.m.; and Walteria Park at 3:30 p.m.

Journalist To Speak On MauMau Terror

George Blomgren Dewey, arriving by plane from Copenhagen on Friday, will speak Sunday, April 24, at the First Baptist church of Torrance at 7:30 p.m. on "Behind the Stage with the Mau Mau." Dewey just returned from seeing the Mau Mau in action in Kenya.

Adventist Church To Be Dedicated

The formal dedication of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church at 1610 Acacia avenue has been set for 3 p.m., Saturday, April 30. Officiating at the dedication according to present plans will be Elder R. R. Bietz, Conference president; R. S. Williams, conference treasurer, and Elder Glenn L. Goffar, local pastor. Visiting ministers from nearby churches will also be present.

Elder Goffar recently presented the check for the balance of indebtedness for the church, formerly the Lutheran church, to the Conference president at the constituency meeting of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Delegates at the meeting from Torrance were Dr. Claude Bab-

This was Dewey's fourth trip overseas. Last year he covered the Asiatic Peace Conference in Geneva, and the year before in Korea and French Indo China. He has made several trips behind the Iron Curtain.

Dewey has this to say about the Mau Mau problem in Africa, "It is by far the most outrageous chapter written in the last century by the white man. Within the foreseeable future the Black Man will have an appointment with hope and realize it, or the white man will have an appointment with death." He further adds, "It is so strange that news items of the atrocities are so suppressed—in the last weeks there have been 8711 Mau Mau machine gunned by the whites." This is Dewey's first appearance with this vital information.

The First Baptist church of Torrance is located at 2118 Carson street, and the program is open to the public.
